

The Five Pillars of Islam

Task: Complete the sentences in the boxes below gaps using the words from the Word Bank.

The five pillars of Islam are rules and acts of worship that _____ follow so they can lead a good and responsible life.

Muslims believe that there is _____ God and that Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) is His Messenger. This pillar of Islam is called _____.

Muslims pray _____ times a day. Prayer is known as _____.

Muslims fast during the month of _____ by not eating or drinking from sunrise to sunset.

Zakat means _____. It is important for Muslims to give money and help those in need.

Muslims should try to go on a special journey to _____ at least once in their lives. This pilgrimage is known as _____.

Word Bank

Makkah

Five

Charity

Hajj

One

Muslims

Shahadah

Ramadan

Salat

How did you find today's task? (✓)

I feel confident. 😊

I still need some support. 😐

I don't feel sure. ☹️

The Five Pillars of Islam

Task Answers:

Fill in the gaps using the words from the word bank

The five pillars of Islam are rules and acts of worship that Muslims follow so they can lead a good and responsible life.

Muslims believe that there is One God and that Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) is His Messenger. This pillar of Islam is called Shahadah.

Muslims pray Five times a day. Prayer is known as Salat.

Muslims fast during the month of Ramadan by not eating or drinking from sunrise to sunset.

Zakat means Charity. It is important for Muslims to give money and help those in need.

Muslims should try to go on a special journey to Mecca at least once in their lives. This pilgrimage is known as Hajj.